Dr Breck—

Camp Pantuxet Oct. 14. 78

This will be Land you by Coll. Harrison of Virginia. who Commands a Regiment of Artillery from West State — & is gog to Boston on purpose to See the Town He is a Gentleman of Fortune & abilitys in his profession — a Sociable worthy fellow — & in whose acquaintance you will find yourself happy — as He is a Stranger in this part of the Country I wish you to Shew him every Civility in your Power — I have no news to write you, we are all peace & quietness if Lord How & Admiral Byron Fleet should go round to Nantasket & Attack the French Fleet — I would advise you to take post on Moon Island being a very fine Situation to See the Battle —

I am with great Esteem your Friend & Hble Servt

HENRY KNOX

RW 591

MS.Ch.C.1.81